Picturesque, Accommodating, & Surprisingly Affordable

Twenty miles North of Boston, nestled along the scenic coast of the historic North Shore, sits the storied Misselwood Estate at Endicott College. Beyond its gates, the College's 235-acre campus offers woodlands, private beaches, and pristine grounds—natural embellishments that enhance any event, large or small.

The interior spaces at the College are equally impressive. State-of-the-art academic and athletic facilities, a post-and-beam lodge, and an elegant tent are just a few of the many venues available to host your memorable event—at a reasonable cost.

Personal, Customized, & Flexible

Our friendly and professional events team is ready to collaborate with you to create an unforgettable party, retreat, or conference. No matter your event size or budget, our outstanding facilities and one-stop event and conference services are flexible and accommodating. We offer:

- All-inclusive day meeting packages for all budgets
 - State-of-the-art facilities & presentation technology
 - Sport and recreational facilities
 - Three private beaches and unmatched ocean views
- Free amenities include:
- Basic A/V equipment
 - WiFi
 - Parking
 - Recreational activities
 - Gym access

Unique Venues, Quaint Places, & Work Spaces

MISSELWOOD TENT

Our oceanfront venue is an ideal location for meetings, product launches, and social celebrations. Enjoy a phenomenal view and the ocean just footsteps away. This space is available on a seasonal basis (spring, summer, and early fall).
Capacity: 50-250

MISSELWOOD HOUSE

This historic house is ideal for small board meetings, networking and social events, or holiday parties. Enjoy scenic ocean views from each window, quaint architectural details and antique furnishings, and spectacular original paintings from Cape Ann's greatest artists.
Capacity: 100

THE LODGE

A wooden post-and-beam structure reminiscent of a ski lodge, this multi-use venue offers high ceilings, rustic décor, lots of natural light, and a fireplace.
Capacity: 65+

GULLY'S

Gully's is the campus hot spot offering a fun, sporty atmosphere for any social gathering or casual work meeting. It's the perfect place for a cocktail hour, with plenty of room for games or dancing.
Capacity: 200

AUDITORIUM & PERFORMANCE HALLS

Whether seminar-style or performance-oriented, the Klebanoff Auditorium, Rose Theater, and Little Theater offer industry-standard multi-media equipment and cinema-style seating to meet the needs of larger groups.
Capacity: 100-250

LAB SPACE

Computer, science, and specialty labs are available campus-wide that can accommodate unique meeting requirements.
Please note: lab technician fees may apply.
Capacity: 15-30

CLASSROOMS

Our classrooms are multi-functional meeting spaces with natural daylight, LCD projectors, built-in desktop computers, and full internet access. Classroom options include traditional set-up, u-shaped tiered, and lecture style.
Capacity: 30-35

HOSPITALITY SUITE

The Hospitality Suite features large windows offering plentiful natural light and views of North Field where several Endicott sports teams play. An ideal venue for a business meeting or smaller reception, this space features an LCD projector, built-in desktop computer, and full internet access.
Capacity: 60

Cocktail Delights, Tasty Bites, & Decadent Desserts

Whether you're here for a few hours or a few weeks, our on-campus catering service offers fresh, high-end, sweet and savory food, presented with flair and attention to detail. Our event managers work closely with the catering staff to create tasty menu items while addressing any dietary preferences or restrictions.

We're ready to customize your elegant dinners, cocktail receptions, breakfast and lunch meetings, and dessert receptions.

Looking for something simpler? Try dining in our Callahan Center, where a varied selection for breakfast, lunch, and dinner is always made fresh and meets many food preferences and dietary restrictions.

All catering inquiries are handled through your Misselwood Event Manager.

Ocean Excursions, Historic Sites, & Arts Immersion

The North Shore: Boston's Gold Coast

The North Shore extends from Boston to the New Hampshire border and is known for its dining, history, museums, and a host of recreational activities. Distances are short, prices are reasonable, and the people are as friendly as they are eclectic.

5- to 10-minute drive

In quick time, you can visit downtown Beverly, MA for dining, breweries, and local entertainment, drive over the bridge to the famed "Witch City" of Salem, Mass., for a tour of the world-renowned Peabody Essex Museum, or pop into several of Manchester-by-the-Sea's charming shops and restaurants. Practice your golf skills at the many nearby 9- and 18-hole courses in the area. Board a sunset cruise or take the Salem Ferry to Boston's North End.

Within a 20-minute drive

In under a half-hour you can cross the "Yachting Capital of the World" off your bucket list by visiting Marblehead, Mass., a quintessential New England town complete with cafes and upscale shopping boutiques.

Gloucester, Mass., America's oldest fishing port, is right down the road featuring active fishing piers, seafood restaurants, beaches, and the Rocky Neck Art Colony. If shopping is your thing, the North Shore Mall and Liberty Tree Mall are home to hundreds of shops.

Within a 30- to 40-minute drive

Explore Newburyport, Mass., and its unique shopping, fine dining, arts and culture, and breathtaking scenic beauty. In summer months, take a harbor tour, a whale watch, or enjoy the beaches of Plum Island. Did we mention we're just North of Boston? Take a train, car, or ferry to the city and stroll the Freedom Trail or wander the Emerald Necklace. Shoppers can visit Faneuil Hall Marketplace and the high-end boutiques on Newbury Street, or cheer on the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park.
